Nice and fast, just how i like my electric trains. Turn off the music and sound, put some of your music on, play 200 rounds, and never make it past level two.

8/10

12/10 with rice. Amazing game I've enjoyed with friends for hours.. Fecharam o jogo cabrões!. If you like TMUF, you're gonna like this... it's pretty much the same only upgraded graphics and new car sounds (and yes, a few new blocks if you like building tracks).

This is still hands down, the best, most competitive racing game on PC, and probably on all platforms.

Easy to learn, very hard to master. Good for casual racers, good for competitive players... everyone gets what he/she wants.

Only downside for me is the fact that the publisher does not at all push this game as an e-sport, while it is still played at most LAN's and e-sport events... and the playerbase is pretty huge for a racing game. The potential is there to be much larger, but unfortunately Nadeo/ubisoft does not seem interested...

Other than that, great game, great tournaments, great community.

I've been playing Trackmania pretty much since it came out, about 10 years ago, and still play its almost every day :). It's all about taste. But I don't like this type of music. So a no from me.. I saw the Celestia Cutie Mark on map HCF_FACTORY! Are you Brony?. Energy Balance takes a fine math puzzle and wraps it in some of the most pathetic graphics and in-game dialog ever created. It's as if the designers actually sat in a room and said, "How can we make this even dumber? Cool, let's do that!" In addition, it has a really limited set of puzzles, and doesn't take very long to complete. A rather disappointing affair.

Amazing achievement for a one man dev team. Love the BSG-like feel to the game!. Music is amazing and the gameplay is enjoyable.. Gauge is a minimalist game that is essentially control a bar that expands when you hold/press a key on the keyboard, and don't hit the upper or lower limits. Basically, keep the gauge in the middle to win. The music is ok, the game doesn't look bad, but I can't recommend paying anything for it as it just is not engaging. I will say this, the 20 minutes I played, I had fun, but the 21st minute would most likely not be fun. There just is not enough draw for more than a few rounds before being done with it.. Ever wanted to walk the plank? Now you can! In your home! If that's not enough (which it is), you can also fight fires with jet power!

<https://youtu.be/9-qM9aqCgts>. Really, really nice. Surprisingly difficult levels as it progresses, interesting story and a good amount of both game hours and replayability (there are puzzles with really difficult 3-star goals).. this game is good i like it :D. Silverfall is flawed for sure but has some satisfying elements for action rpg fans. Might be tricky getting it to run but is definatly worth it on sale.

Pros:

- Characters are highly customizable with six races to choose from and a simple yet robust set of skill trees
- Neat morality system, align with nature or technology to access unique skills and equipment
- Lootfest with a pretty deep crafting system
- Attractive cell-shaded art

Cons:

- Lots of terrain issues, getting stuck on bushes, slight inclines, etc.
- Skill hotbars are counter-intuitive but can be remapped
- No UI scaling makes text difficult to read from a distance
- The map and quest log are clunky to use

Plays Like: Torchlight V Neverwinter Nights. i would recmend it because there are 5 islands of the same airport but the islands are super close together so its like a 5 to 10 minute flight to each island. This game is not a psychological thriller and has zero payoff, even for an episodic title one would expect at least some element of coherent plot development, but no. The puzzle mechanics are all right but highly reminiscent of a mobile title, which it was. This is just item grabbing busywork, maybe it would be a good way to pass time in a dentist's waiting room, but it doesn't begin to approach the excitement of a root canal.
